Literacy Quebec Newsletter

-March 2024-

Happy March, everyone!

Has spring sprung? This is still up for debate, but in the meantime, you can be sure about the announcements we have lined up, such as the last phase in our CHSSN Mental Health Project, updates on our Charity Challenge, our Reading for the Love of It conference recap, and so much more!

---

Our CHSSN Mental Health webinars have wrapped up!

Thank you to everyone who attended our CHSSN Mental Health webinars! We hope you learned valuable information to take with you both professionally and personally. We appreciate the feedback we have received and look forward to embarking on future projects that will create new learning opportunities for those within our network and the public.

For the last phase in our project, we will be releasing a guide with an overview of English mental health resources and services available in Quebec in the coming weeks.

These workshops were made possible by: CHSSN and the Public Health Agency of Canada.

Lace Up for Literacy: Limited Registration Available

Thanks to those who have registered under our team for the 21k de Montréal! Since the early sell-out, we have received five access codes and links for those who would like to help us raise funds for literacy councils across the province by completing a virtual OR in-person 5k or 10k distance. These funds will help literacy councils fulfill their mission of making literacy more accessible to the public through free tutoring services, programming, book giveaways, and more.

If you would like to register, please contact laceup@literacyquebec.org for an access code and link. The access codes and links will be given to the first five people who send us an email. You have until March 20th, 5pm ET to register. After that, they will expire, so please sign up as soon as you can!

As pictured, those registering under our team will receive awesome swag, such as T-shirts, bags, water bottles, and other goodies!

If you would like to donate to our team, please feel free to do so at the following link: https://raceroster.com/events/2024/78955/21k-de-montreal-2024?locale=en\_CA To donate to our team instead of a participant, click 'View Teams' and search 'Literacy Quebec.' Any and every amount is appreciated and does not go unnoticed!

Reading for the Love of It Conference Recap

From February 22nd to the 23rd, LQ had the opportunity to attend the annual Reading for the Love of It conference in Toronto, the largest language arts conference of its kind in Canada. Its purpose is to inspire and provoke thinking about literacy issues and a lifelong love of reading by offering a variety of resources from publishers, book sellers, educational experts, illustrators, and more.

Through the workshops and trade show, we gained new professional development knowledge and learned about new resources out there both internally and for our network. During keynote speaking sessions, we had the honour of hearing thought-provoking talks by notable writers like Sara O'Leary, Catherine Hernandez, Cherie Dimaline, Nic Stone, and Uzma Jalaluddin. We even purchased their books and had them personally signed!

The conference was also a great opportunity to talk about what we do and the resources we provide, as well as connect with other organizations and educators doing great work.

Thank you to the Reading for the Love of It organizers for another wonderful conference experience with many opportunities for learning and resource sharing!
