

Arts Affirmation Session: Bio-Writing Workshop

Use this list of questions to help you brainstorm the content of your artist bio. These questions were written with various disciplines and career stages in mind, so it's okay if you aren't able to answer each one. Focus on the questions that apply to your art practice specifically.

Where are you from? Where are you based now?

How long have you been making art?

How did you learn your practice? Do you have formal education, or are you self-taught? Were you trained by an established artist in your discipline?

What are your biggest accomplishments?

What are you working on currently?

What is your creative process?

Have you won any awards or grants?

Do you have any publications?

Was your work featured in any exhibitions? Have you performed at any festivals?

What productions have you been involved in? Have you played any popular roles?

What exhibitions have you curated? What festivals have you organized?

What productions have you directed, choreographed, or written?

Have you been commissioned to create work for an impressive client?

Is your work part of any public institution's collection?

Who have you collaborated with? Have you toured with or opened for any well-known acts? Are you a part of a collective?

Have any reputable publications or media outlets written about your work?

Who represents your work?
