Happy Holidays

Tis the Season!

It is the season for time with family and friends, rest, and relaxation. We hope you get all of that. And when January hits and you're looking for new family activities, you'll be in luck! January is Family Literacy Month!

Literacy Quebec is hosting TWO events with the incomparable, Juno-nominated, CBC Kids star, Jeremy Fisher. See below for how you can join in the fun for Family Literacy Week!

In the meantime, of course, we're wishing you all a happy, healthy, safe season! See you in the New Year!

Winter Party

We enjoyed some festive fun and games with our lovely Members at our Zoom Winter Party! Thankfully our network is used to our shenanigans so charades and snowman sketching without looking was received with enthusiasm and lots of laughs.

Literacy Quebec would like to take this opportunity to thank our member organisations for all their hard work in what was another challenging year for everyone. We wish you, your staff, volunteers and learners a restful and peaceful holiday break.

Welcome to our new Treasurer

Literacy Quebec has welcomed a new member to the Board of Directors, Carolyn Hibbs.

Carolyn started working in the nonprofit sector 15 years ago during her academic career, before choosing it as a full-time career in 2015. She currently provides nonprofit management consulting services to small and large organizations, and also works with the Western Quebec Literacy Council.

She has a PhD in Humanities from York University, and a certificate in nonprofit management from Toronto Metropolitan University.

Jeremy will be back for a conversation with educators and caring adults to discuss his work making music for young listeners, families, and everyone alike! Feel free to bring questions you've always wanted to ask and sit down for a lovely and informative chat!

This is intended for educators, people working with children, and other interested grown ups. Register here.
