COMMUNICATION AND THE COMMUNITY:

CREATING A LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

Is education preparing our young people for the workplace in the 1990s and beyond? Can we, as Home & Schoolers, communicate the needs of our children to the community? What action can we take to ensure our children's future? These questions and more will be discussed during the plenary session, which will be led by:-

- Sue McKenzie, Department of Psychology, Dawson College.
- communication within the family.
- Ian Andes, student, John Rennie High School.
- what it is like to be a student and how students can communicate with parents, teachers and school administrators.
- Norman Henchey, Faculty of Education, McGill University, retired.
- how the community can work with schools to create a learning environment.

10:30 - 11:00 NUTRITION BREAK - time to visit the displays

Accommodations for out-of-town delegates will be made at:-
Beausejour Motel (Tel. 631-4537)
1010 Herron Road
Dorval, Quebec H9S 1B3

The Beausejour Motel is just south of the 2 & 20 Highway in Dorval. The Herron Road address is the service road that runs parallel to the highway. The 2 & 20 is a main east/west highway through Montreal. Dorval is just outside Montreal proper, going west. The motel is right next the Dorval Shopping Center which has boutiques, stores (including The Bay) and restaurants of every description. It is also reasonably close to where we are holding the conference and we can arrange to pick you up from there on the Saturday morning.

We will pay for up to two nights accommodation, if needed for your travel connections, for each of your delegates, using the most economical accommodations where possible (i.e., double room with 2 double beds). (A single room costs $58.50 a night.)

Reservations will be made and held at the motel in your name (not the school name). If you wish to share the room with a particular person please indicate that to us. Thank you.

GUIDELINES re allowable expenses are on the reverse side.

CONFERENCE GUIDELINES FOR OUT OF TOWN (DELEGATE) EXPENSES

TRAVEL

Either car/bus/air/train - depending on distance and cost factor(s), with receipts*.

Car - submit actual gas bills, with receipts*.

Local Ground Transportation - $20. maximum with receipts*. (e.g. taxi to and from a terminus)

Air - obtain economy air fare; must be cleared by office beforehand.

Train - economy sleeping arrangements (e.g. berth).

ACCOMMODATION

QFHSA conferences: we arrange stay at nearby motel. If this is not acceptable we will reimburse you at this rate if you choose more expensive accommodations. Advantage of staying in motel of our choice: we will arrange transportation.

MEALS

Daily allowance, while travelling, $20./day maximum, with receipts*.
(We estimate $5.00 for breakfast; $5.00-7.00 for lunch; $8.00-10.00 for dinner.)

Scheduled meals at QFHSA conferences are at your own expense, as per prices marked on registration form. We recommend that local Home & School Associations budget to pay all or major portion of these meal costs, on behalf of their delegates.

BABY SITTING

Expenses not covered by QFHSA; we suggest that local associations assist their delegates.

* RECEIPTS

Sorry, no reimbursements without receipts.

If you have any questions, call the H&S office at (514)481-5619. You may call collect if you wish.
