FALL CONFERENCE PROGRAM

FAMILY MATTERS: OUR CHILDREN, WHOSE RESPONSIBILITY ?

Saturday

October 23

- 8:00 - 8:15      DISPLAYS (coffee and juice available)
- 8:15 - 8:45      REGISTRATION
- 8:45 - 9:00      PRESIDENT'S OPENING REMARKS
- 9:00 - 10:00     PLENARY: "Our Children, Whose Responsibility?"
                  "It takes a whole village to raise a child"
                  (An African proverb)

Bringing up children is a responsibility shared by many partners. What are the roles of the school and of the family? How far can they provide support? Richard Meades will address the role of the school and Oscar Grossman will talk about the family's role.

Richard Meades - Principal, Westmount High School, and winner of the QFHSA Paterson Award for an outstanding educator who encourages parents' involvement in their children's education.

Oscar Grossman - professional psychoanalyst and family therapist, and a Director, Research Department of the Argyle Institute of Human Relations.

10:00 - 10:30     NUTRITION BREAK - time to visit the displays and to find out what is new in the field of education and fund raising.

10:30 - 12:00     CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS - morning session

- A) La Loi 107. Travaillant vers de nouvelles associations et relations. Quel rôle les parents peuvent-ils jouer dans les changements à venir? Cette atelier sera présenter par Monsieur Allan Hilton (avocat) et Madame Ann Cumyn (commissaire).

10:30 - 12:00     CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS - morning session - continued

- B) Barriers to Parental Involvement
How can we, as Home & Schoolers, more effectively involve first generation Canadian families into the life of the school and the community?
A panel of active parent and community volunteers will help us focus on removing the barriers. Discussion multilingual.
- C) Volunteers - How to Get 'em and Keep 'em
Alma Baker (Beaconsfield High School Community office) and Nancy Peppy (Aylmer Home & School) will be on hand to share their experiences in attracting volunteers into the school and various suggestions on ways to keep them involved and interested.
- D) How to Organize a Home & School and Keep it Vital and Running
All members of Home & School are encouraged to attend with their concerns and questions. Several active Home & Schoolers will field your questions.

12:00 - 1:15      LUNCH (included in registration). Visit DISPLAYS.

1:15 - 2:45      CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS - afternoon session

- E) Bill 107. Working Towards a New Partnership - Scenarios and Concerns. - repeat IN ENGLISH of Workshop A.
How can parents be participants in the changes taking place? Come prepared with questions and concerns which Allan Hilton (lawyer) and Ann Cumyn (commissioner) will do their best to address.
- F) Perspectives on Integration
Two educators will talk about their perspectives of the integration of special needs students within the school system.

Diane McLean-Heywood - learning consultant, Lakeshore School Bd.
Anne MacWhirter - teacher, Gaspesia-The Islands School Board
- G) Mutual Respect within the Family
Can the individual needs of each member of busy, active families be met, while at the same time maintaining mutual respect and harmony? Marg Mitchell (Social Development consultant, LSB) and Ed Cukier (psychologist, PSBGM) suggest that it is possible and offer practical techniques.

2:45 - 3:00      WIND UP and DRAWING of winning Evaluation Form.

ORDER FORM FOR ACCOMMODATIONS - DEADLINE OCTOBER 18th

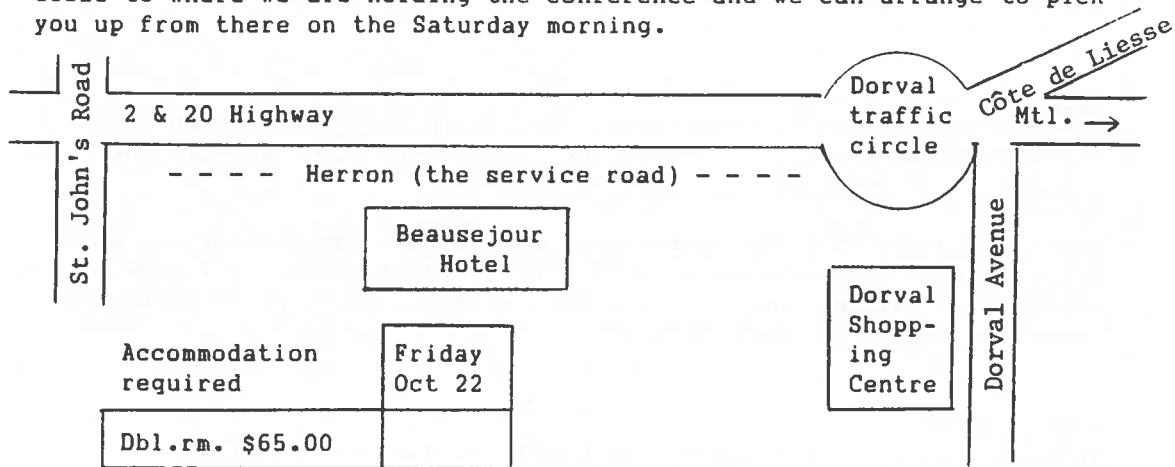

Mail to: Q.F.H.S.A.
 3285 Cavendish Blvd., Suite 562
 Montreal, Quebec. H4B 2L9

Name of Delegate: -----

Name of Association: -----

Accommodations for out-of-town delegates will be made at:-
 Beausejour Hotel (Tel. 631-4537)
 1010 Herron Road, Dorval, Quebec H9S 1B3

The Beausejour Hotel is just south of the 2 & 20 Highway in Dorval. The Herron Road address is the service road that runs parallel to the highway. The 2 & 20 is a main east/west highway through Montreal and Dorval is just outside Montreal proper, going west. The hotel is right next the Dorval Shopping Center which has boutiques, stores (including The Bay) and restaurants of every description. It is also reasonably close to where we are holding the conference and we can arrange to pick you up from there on the Saturday morning.

We will pay your accommodation, if needed for your travel connections, for each of your delegates, using the most economical accommodations where possible (i.e., double room with 2 double beds). (A single room costs $55.00 a night.) Reservations will be made and held at the hotel in your name (not the school name). If you wish to share the room with a particular person please indicate that to us.

GUIDELINES re allowable expenses are on the reverse side.

CONFERENCE GUIDELINES FOR OUT OF TOWN (DELEGATE) EXPENSES

TRAVEL

Either car/bus/air/train - depending on distance and cost factor(s), with receipts*.

Car: We allow 12¢/km within 100 km radius of Montreal.
Beyond 100 km radius, actual gas bills, with receipts*.

Local Ground Transportation: $20. maximum with receipts* (ex. if a taxi is necessary to/from a terminus).

Air: Obtain economy air fare; must be cleared by office beforehand.

Train: Economy sleeping arrangements (e.g. berth).

ACCOMMODATION

QFHSA conferences: we arrange stay at nearby motel. Advantage of staying in motel of our choice: we will arrange transportation to the conference site.

MEALS

Daily allowance, while travelling, $25./day maximum, with receipts*.
(We are estimating $5. for breakfast, $5-$8 for lunch; $10-$15 for dinner. Wine and alcoholic beverages excluded.)

Scheduled meals at QFHSA conferences are at your own expense, as per prices marked on registration form. We recommend that local Home & School Associations budget to pay all, or major portion, of these meal costs, on behalf of their delegates.

BABY SITTING

These expenses are not covered by QFHSA; we suggest that local associations assist their delegates.

* RECEIPTS - Sorry, no reimbursements without receipts.

If you have any questions, call the H&S office at (514) 481-5619. You may call collect if you wish.
