Press Release: Author Conversations with Richard King on We're All In This Together, the Web Series for Seniors

Please join us on Friday, September 24 at 6pm for the launch of Episode 21: Author Conversations with Richard King! Starting at his home on the Lachine Canal exploring King's origins and evolution as a mystery writer, we also visit frontline ER nurse Margaret Quinsey, who inspired the main character of his book series that began with A Stab At Life. Don't miss this intimate and personal look at how art truly does imitate life for this iconic Quebec writer.

We're All In This Together is a collaboration between the English Language Arts Network and Seniors Action Quebec, and a community initiative to reach Quebec's English-speaking seniors. This one-of-a-kind web-series has been designed by seniors, especially for seniors. Each bi-weekly episode is directed by Montreal-based, award-winning filmmaker Bobbi Jo Hart and features entertainment, activities and conversations designed to connect with those in need of support and empathy... with a gentle reminder that we are, indeed, all in this together. Episodes released so far can easily be found on YouTube (Search keys words "We're All In This Together Senior Web Series") and Facebook (Search "WereAllInThisTogetherQuebec"), and are available for anyone to enjoy.

This is also a great opportunity to take a moment to assure that the seniors around you are able to access the internet, so that they are able to take advantage of all the online resources available to them.
