AQ to take legal action related to electoral fraud in last year`s referendum

Montreal, Sept. 20 -- Alliance Quebec expects to undertake legal action related to fraud in the province's referendum last year.

Several prominent members of Quebec's English-speaking community feel so strongly on the issue that they are participating in a petition campaign to urge a full and fair public inquiry into the way the referendum was conducted.

These include Alliance Quebec Chairman Gerry Weiner, former secretary of state for Canada, and board members like Maurice Podbrey who hosted Premier Bouchard at the Centaur Theatre last spring and Louise Boyne, president of Jacques Cartier Inc. personnel consultants.
