A Message to the Graduating Class of GIHS

I wish to thank you for the invitation to write a few words to the graduating class of 2000-2001. As you are well aware, you are now entering a very important phase in your lives, and a high level of maturity will be needed to cope with the added responsibilities. You have grown and matured a great deal over the last few years, and I am confident that you, the graduating class, have reached the level of maturity required to face the obstacles that you will most certainly meet in the years ahead. You are now beginning to reap the rewards for all your hard work and devotion to your studies in the last years of high school. This dedication and persistence are attributes that will follow you in your careers throughout life. Always strive to do your best and the good things will come to you. Remember that the World will stand aside to let anyone pass who knows where he is going.

Best Wishes
Winston Clarke

No Jennifer, I'm not putting the chairs on the desks!

Is that Mr. Verables or Mr. Miyagi?

All hail Madame Principale!

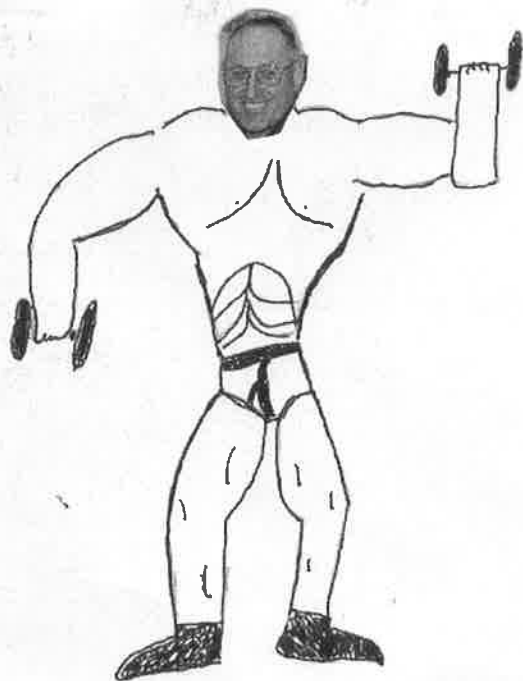

WASSSUUP!

Someone pull him off before he gets too excited!

We caught Winston working out on the job!

So how do I look with hair?

Am I seeing double or are there two dummies?

Type up your own letter! I'm going home!

What Will Become of Me?

By
Haley Sapers

A change happened.
Where will it take me
Should I cry?
Or laugh?
Or yell?
Will it be fun?
Or bad?

That black and white line blurred into grey before me.

How should I feel?
Happy?
Sad or mad?
Glad?
Confused?
Scarred?
Joyful or grateful?

What should I say?
Should I yell?
Or scream?
Cry?
Or laugh?
Giggle?
Jump and run?

Where does this path take me?
What door should I unlock?
What way in this giant maze should I go?
If I was a spider what strand of web would I walk?

In this wild circle of life,
There is a path for everyone...
But you must choose your own
